

Pivot At A Glance: Funding and Collaboration Connected

About Pivot

- The university subscribes to Pivot, an online resource owned by ProQuest.
- Access Pivot on Princeton's campus or with a Pivot account at <http://pivot.proquest.com>

Funding & Collaborators

- Find & track funding opportunities from a variety of global sponsors: government, corporations, foundations, & private entities.
- Search for all types of funding: research, fellowships, travel, equipment, prizes, etc.
- Find potential collaborators from around the world.

Email alerts

- Create searches, refine, and save them.
- Receive weekly email alerts of new opps matching your search terms.

Profile & Advisor

- Your Pivot Profile contains information about you, your research interests and publications.
- Every day, the Pivot Advisor suggests funding & collaboration opps based on your Pivot Profile.
- Update and tweak your profile to obtain better matches in the Pivot Advisor.

Registration

- Anyone at Princeton University can register for Pivot, including faculty, researchers, staff & students.
- Register at <http://pivot.proquest.com> with your @princeton.edu email address.
- A Pivot account must be created in order to sign up for weekly email alerts.

Demos & Questions

- Watch a 22 minute demo online customized for Princeton at <https://youtu.be/guWncfSsRNg>
- Pivot documentation can be accessed at https://knowledge.exlibrisgroup.com/Pivot/Product_Materials/Resources_and_Support
- Questions? Contact Kyle Burkhardt, Pivot Liaison, at 8-7373, or kburkhar@princeton.edu